Kids on the Move for Success Non-Violence is Powerful Fact Sheet

On August 20, 2013, Antoinette Tuff became an accidental hostage negotiator by using her experiences with challenging life issues to successfully convince an armed gunman who entered the Ronald E. McNair Discovery Learning Academy to give her his AK-47. This is the only school active shooter situation in the US that ended without death or injury to school students, faculty, parents or shooter himself. Never did she think that she would become a hero saving more than 1,000 lives, a best-selling author, an international celebrity or a guest of Michelle Obama's at the State of the Union Address.

Showing enormous COMPASSION, CONFIDENCE and CONTROL (called Tuff Tactics), Antoinette convinced the gunman to surrender by letting her faith guide her and using her own life struggles to connect with him. Seven-time Grammy Award winner Toni Braxton starred as Antoinette Tuff in the movie "Faith Under Fire: The Antoinette Tuff Story".

"Hero is not the word I would use to describe myself on August 20. The word I would use is vessel." — Antoinette Tuff

The Program:

Non-Violence is Powerful is a program targeted to engage middle and high school students. Student Leaders moderate a viewing of the movie "Faith Under Fire: The Antoinette Tuff Story" (http://antoinettetuff.com/ antoinette-movie/). The viewing is followed by a panel discussion about Gun Violence and School Safety. Student Leaders will focus on COMPASSION, CONFIDENCE and CONTROL to stimulate audience participation and discussion. The event may include a Non-Violence is Powerful Poster Contest. Middle and high school students will create posters. The Kids on the Move for Success Youth Advisory/Planning Team will lead in the marketing and judging of the poster contest to fellow middle/high school students. One winner from each level (middle and high school) will receive $50.00.
